BERLIN

Berlin is the capital of the Federal Republic of Germany and the largest continental European metropolis between Paris and Moscow. The 19th-century writer Jean Paul said, “Berlin is more a part of the world than a city.” Today this description is more apt than ever before: Berlin is not only the political center of Germany. It is also a magnet for avant-garde culture, an experimental space for urban lifestyles and a hotbed of exciting subcultures.

Every neighborhood exudes its own fascination with an unmistakable character and a wealth of history. Berlin’s nightlife never stops, and there is no end to the flow of new ideas generated in the arts, cultural life and club scene. The city is home to four universities and four art academies. Since German reunification and the fall of the Berlin Wall, the new capital has attracted steadily increasing numbers of media outlets and companies in future technology sectors.

Goethe-Institut Berlin is situated in the Berlin Mitte district, near Hackesche Höfe, the thriving cluster of courtyards bordered by offices, apartments, galleries, workshops, cafés and shopping, intermeshing the worlds of work, the arts, living, culture, dining and entertainment. The Weinmeisterstrasse underground train station is right outside the door of the institute, and the Hackescher Markt S-Bahn station is a four-minute walk.

BONN

The former West German capital is in the south of the state of North-Rhine Westphalia. In its new identity, Bonn is now the “UN city on the Rhine”. The office complex that once housed Germany’s parliamentarians is now home to 11 UN organisations.

The house where Ludwig van Beethoven was born in Bonn in 1770 is just one of the city’s many museums. The composer is also celebrated in the name of the annual music festival here. The University of Bonn is one of the largest and most prestigious in Germany. The students and the many tourists from Germany and abroad enjoy the lively theater scene, the Bonn Summer Festival and the delightful atmosphere at its open air concerts, and naturally the boisterous fun of the Carnival season. A boat trip on the Rhine is a wonderful way to see the Rhine valley, a world cultural heritage site, with its many castles and hillside vineyards, and the famous Loreley.

The Goethe-Institut Bonn is centrally located in the modern building of the Language Learning Center at the University of Bonn. This gives students first-hand experience of university life in Germany.

The institute is fully accessible to the disabled.

BREMEN

The “Free Hanseatic City of Bremen” is Germany’s smallest federal state and its 10th-largest city. The people of Bremen are fond of saying, “Hamburg is the gateway to the world, but Bremen holds the key.” Probably the world’s oldest statue emblematic of liberty, dating back to 1404, can be seen on the marketplace: the Roland Statue. In recent years this traditional overseas trading and shipbuilding city has become an important center for aerospace engineering and the sciences. The Technology Park near the University of Bremen has gained wide renown.

But Bremen has many other claims to fame, such as the medieval city center, the Hanseatic brickwork architecture, and the fairy-tale animals from Grimms’ ‘Town Musicians of Bremen’. In 2004 the imposing Bremen city hall and the Roland Statue were designated as UNESCO World Cultural Heritage sites.

The Goethe-Institut Bremen is situated on the university campus. This makes it convenient for participants to combine their German course with life at the university. The university is just a 14-minute trip from the main train station with the number 6 tram line.

DRESDEN

Splendid baroque architecture, numerous artistic treasures and the enchanting surrounding countryside have earned the capital of the Free State of Saxony the nickname “Florence on the Elbe”. A prominent university city, it has one of Germany’s largest libraries, and also boasts a lively contemporary literary scene. It was here in 1785 that Friedrich Schiller wrote his “Ode to Joy”, the poem Beethoven set to music in his Ninth Symphony. Dresden is also the center of eastern Germany’s most prosperous economic region, often referred to as “Silicon Saxony”. Complementing the urban appeal of Dresden are the endless possibilities for recreation and entertainment – day and night.

The Goethe-Institut Dresden is situated in the historical Dresdner Neustadt area of the city, near the Elbe and the baroque city center. The spacious grounds of the institute include a small park with mature trees. The institute and its guesthouse are easily accessible by public transportation.

The Dresden Goethe-Institut also conducts some courses in Weimar: the “Goethe city”. For information and advice, contact the Goethe-Institut Dresden directly or visit www.goethe.de/weimar

DÜSSELDORF

Düsseldorf, the metropolis on the Rhine, is the largest city in the state of North-Rhine Westphalia. As a hub of international business activity and a major trade fair center, Düsseldorf comes across as worldly and easygoing. Some 5,000 companies from around the world have offices here, lending a cosmopolitan touch to the populace. The advertising, design and fashion sectors here generate higher sales than in any other German location. Neuer Zollhof, a postmodern ensemble of buildings designed by Frank Gehry, embodies the city's creativity and identity.

The most famous native son of Düsseldorf is definitely the poet Heinrich Heine, whose name is commemorated by the respected university here. With the artist Josef Beuys, the academy of fine arts also gained worldwide renown. Since 1976 the Düsseldorfer Photoschule, headed by Bernd and Hilla Becher, has been producing Germany's most famous photographers, including Andreas Gursky, Thomas Ruff and Candida Höfer.

The Goethe-Institut Düsseldorf is located in a modern building right at the railway station near the Konrad-Adenauer-Platz exit. This is also an ideal starting point for our course participants to visit destinations all over the Rhine-Ruhr region.

FRANKFURT AM MAIN

Frankfurt, the site of the world-famous Frankfurt Book Fair, has a long tradition of forging strong links between capital and the arts. The city is home to 190 publishing houses. Among the superlatives setting Frankfurt apart are its airport, which is one of the world's largest, the Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the city's dramatic, modern skyline, unrivalled in Germany.

Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, without doubt the most famous resident, is simply everywhere. The house where he was born, now beautifully restored, is in Grosser Hirschgraben in the historic city center. Whether you like concerts, movies, theater or exhibitions: Frankfurt has a rich cultural life. A visit to the "Museum Mile", for example, with the film and architecture museum, the Museum of Applied Arts, the Jewish Museum and the world-famous Städel art gallery, can be combined with a walk along the River Main and a stop at an inn serving the renowned local apple wine.

The Goethe-Institut Frankfurt is situated near the Museum Mile, opposite the Südbahnhof railway station in the attractive Sachsenhausen district, a popular residential area with plenty to do in the evening. There are excellent public transportation links to get you from the institute to the city center.

FREIBURG

There seems to be no end to the good fortune of Germany's most southerly major city: An enchanting location between the Black Forest and the Rhine, with France and Switzerland on the doorstep, and an enviable climate – Freiburg has it all. Other major factors in the excellent quality of life here are the historical city center with its secluded squares, the musical culture and the vineyards on the slopes of the Kaiserstuhl. The little metropolis also has a big cultural program: eight municipal theaters, cinemas, libraries, numerous museums and galleries compete for an audience. The famous college of music, the “Fest der Innenhöfe” (a musical festival staged in courtyards around the city) and the Zelt-Musik-Festival, which presents more than 100 highly diverse concerts over 19 days, fill Freiburg with beautiful sounds.

But Freiburg is more than just romantic. The University of Freiburg – designated a University of Excellence – has 28,000 students. Famed as the “green capital”, the city is also a trailblazer for ecology and renewable energy.

The Goethe-Institut Freiburg is surrounded by a spacious garden. It is just five minutes from the railway station, the city center with the university and its dining hall, and the Stühlinger student district, where the institute's guesthouse is located.

GÖTTINGEN

The historical center of this 1000-year-old city in the heart of Germany is a delight for visitors, with its beautiful churches, lovingly preserved half-timbered houses forming picturesque squares, and old city walls. In 2007 the Georg-August-Universität, founded in 1737, was designated a University of Excellence. Students, who make up a quarter of the city's population, give Göttingen its young and easygoing atmosphere, with the numerous student pubs and exciting cultural scene.

More than 40 Nobel laureates have lived and worked in Göttingen over the past 100 years. Several Max Planck research institutes and the German Aerospace Center have headquarters here, carrying on Göttingen's long tradition as a research center. It is also the home of one of Germany's largest scientific libraries and internationally renowned companies in future technology sectors.

The Goethe-Institut Göttingen is housed along with its guesthouse in a splendid historical villa with spacious grounds. It is just 10 minutes on foot from the old city center and the university campus.

HAMBURG

Hamburg is Germany's second-largest city and also has the status of one of Germany's 16 states. An economic powerhouse, it is situated along the lower reaches of the Elbe, approximately 100 kilometers inland from the North Sea. The people here are legendary for their openness to the outside world, their public spirit and their dry sense of humor. Europe's second-biggest port has earned Hamburg the nickname, "Gateway to the world".

More than 1,800 companies engaged in foreign trade are active in the city. HafenCity, a major urban development project, underscores Hamburg's status as a metropolis of the future. At the same time, Hamburg is regarded as a leading media and press center. With some 600 music clubs, publishers and production companies, the music and entertainment industry boasts the right infrastructure here to keep the tunes coming – as the Beatles realized back in the 1960s.

The Goethe-Institut Hamburg is at the heart of the city not far from the Binnenalster lake and the gallery/museum district known as the Kunstmeile, or 'Art Mile'. It occupies the top two floors of an imposing 19th-century building. The central location at the main train station ensures optimal transportation links.

MANNHEIM-HEIDELBERG

Mannheim is a lively university city offering excellent quality of life. It is located at the center of the Rhine-Neckar triangle, where 2 million people live and work – including 320,000 in Mannheim. The fostering of trade, manufacturing, research and culture has a long tradition in this city, once the residence of the ruling Wittelsbach family.

Today Mannheim enjoys a reputation as a focal point for German language and studies, a fact exemplified by the presence here of the Bibliographisches Institut (whose Dudenverlag publishing arm publishes authoritative dictionaries and style guides) and the Institut für Deutsche Sprache. The Mannheim Palace is second only to Versailles among Europe's largest baroque castles. A unique aspect of the city is the classical layout of the streets in numbered blocks. And those with a longing for the charm of winding medieval laneways can take a tram to neighboring Heidelberg.

The Goethe-Institut Mannheim-Heidelberg and its guesthouses are situated in the leafy district of Neckarau near the Rhine. The main train station and the shopping area in the city center are just 10 minutes away.

MÜNCHEN

The Bavarian capital is Germany's third-largest city. There is probably no city of comparable size anywhere that is similarly charming, mellow and safe. You can walk along the Isar river, passing through the entire city, surrounded at all times by trees and gardens. The sights, from the famed Deutsches Museum of science and technology to Nymphenburg Castle, attract millions of tourists every year. Equally delightful is the city's location in the Alpine foothills, amid mountains, lakes and castles.

With two elite universities, Munich has an excellent standing in the academic world. Shaping the character of today's Munich are a number of key industries: cars, insurance, IT and media, trade fairs and tourism. In addition, with 250 book publishers, the city is second only to New York in the publishing world. Since the 1990s Munich has also played a trendsetting role in the design and advertising sectors.

SCHWÄBISCH HALL

Schwäbisch Hall brings history to life: The historical center of this 1000-year-old former Free Imperial City is replete with half-timbered houses from the late Middle Ages. An intimate, relaxed atmosphere is enhanced by the wide-ranging pedestrian precinct and the many welcoming restaurants and pubs. This is a place where people can learn, work and live with no pressure.

Schwäbisch Hall is the most important regional hub between Stuttgart and Nuremberg. Key factors in the local economy of the town, which has a population of 37,000, are the insurance industry, mechanical engineering and trade. Kunsthalle Würth, an art gallery designed by the Danish architect Henning Larsen, has a reputation extending far beyond this region. At the town's two colleges, Goethe-Institut course participants are welcome to listen in on lectures and seminars at all times.

The Goethe-Institut Schwäbisch Hall is centrally located in the town's romantic city center. It is housed in a spacious historical building with modern rooms and facilities, with the guesthouses nearby.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. General Requirements

Course participants must be at least 18 years of age.

2. Participation / Enrollment confirmation

- 2.1. After enrolling in the course, the participant is sent confirmation (referred to below as "enrollment confirmation") by Goethe-Institut e.V. ("GI") of enrollment in the selected course, the accommodation booking and the meal arrangements (referred to as "the course"). With receipt of the enrollment confirmation by the participant, the contract takes effect.
- 2.2. An invoice is forwarded with the enrollment confirmation, informing the participant of the payable course fees, which include all services specified in 2.1. above (instruction, accommodation, meals), indicating the payment deadline and the participant number.

3. Prices and terms of payment

- 3.1. The price list for courses, accommodation and meals in effect at the time of enrollment is an integral part of the contract. Please refer to www.goethe.de/anmeldung-deutschland.
- 3.2. The course fee is payable in full to the GI at the payment deadline shown in the invoice. The payment date is defined as the date at which the payment is credited to the GI account specified in the enrollment confirmation. The money transfer must indicate the course participant number.
- 3.3. All bank charges related to the payment of the course fee shall be borne by the course participant.
- 3.4. If the GI does not receive full payment of the course fees by the due date, the participant will no longer be entitled to the services booked. In this case the GI is entitled to make the services available to other interested parties.
- 3.5. In case of non-attendance at the booked course, delayed arrival, early departure or withdrawal from a course, or any other absences (e.g. due to illness), there is no claim to reimbursement of the course fees.

4. Changes to course bookings

In exceptional cases participants may change the services booked (e.g. the course date) in consultation with the GI. The first change is free of charge. A fee of €60 is payable for each additional booking change.

5. Cancellation

- 5.1. The course participant can cancel the course booking subject to the following conditions.
  - ☐ In case of cancellation no later than four weeks prior to the start of the course, the GI will withhold an administrative fee of €160.
  - ☐ In case of cancellation no later than one week prior to the start of the course, GI will withhold an amount equal to 30% of the course fee, but not less than the administrative fee of €160.
  - ☐ In case of cancellation no later than one day prior to the start of the course, GI will withhold an amount equal to 50% of the course fee, but not less than the administrative fee of €160.
  - ☐ In case of withdrawal after the start of the course, GI will withhold 100% of the course fee.

The course participant may submit evidence to show that it would be appropriate for a lesser amount to be withheld in an individual case.
- 5.2. The course participant can cancel accommodation arrangements free of charge up to four (4) weeks before the start of the course. Cancellation at a later date is not possible.
- 5.3. The cancellation must be submitted in writing (or by e-mail) to GI using the contact addresses indicated in the enrollment confirmation. The cancellation date is defined as the date of receipt of the cancellation declaration at the contact address specified in the enrollment confirmation.

6. Course level assignment / class size

- 6.1. The assignment to a course level is made on the basis of a placement test carried out at the course location.
- 6.2. In all courses, the maximum class size is 16.

7. Accommodation

- 7.1. On request, the GI offers accommodation for rent. Any request for the booking of accommodation must be indicated when enrolling. Prior inspection of the accommodation is not possible.
- 7.2. The accommodation is rented only on a course by course basis. The date for moving into the accommodation is the published arrival date, and the date for moving out is the published departure date.
- 7.3. The course participant is responsible for exercising due care in the accommodation and keeping it clean during the rental period. At the end of the rental period, the accommodation must be left in a clean and tidy state.
- 7.4. If the accommodation is in a guesthouse, a proper handover must take place at the beginning and end of the rental period between the course participant and a person authorized by the GI (inspection of the state of the rooms, inventory of equipment and other items, etc.).
- 7.5. Guests of the course participant are permitted to stay overnight only with the express permission of the GI.
- 7.6. Any violation of the landlord's house rules will result in termination of the rental agreement without notice with no claim to replacement accommodation or reimbursement of rent paid.
- 7.7. If the accommodation is recommended by the GI, e.g. through a link on the GI website, then GI does not act as the landlord of the accommodation.

8. Responsibilities of participants

- 8.1. It is the responsibility of the course participant to ensure at his/her own expense that his/her stay in Germany is in compliance with the law and that he/she is in possession of any required entry permit, residence permit or visa.
- 8.2. It is the sole responsibility of the course participant to take out health insurance and accident, liability and personal property insurance. GI assumes no liability in this area.
- 8.3. Participants are obliged to comply with the course rules and house rules applicable to the Goethe-Instituts.

9. Liability of the GI

- 9.1. GI is subject to liability – regardless of the legal cause – only in case of gross negligence or intent.
- 9.2. GI is also liable in case of ordinary negligence in case of damage resulting in death, injury or harm to health as well as damages for the culpable violation of a material contractual violation.
- 9.3. Any other contractual or tort claims of the course participant are explicitly precluded.

10. Force majeure

Neither GI nor its employees are liable for non-performance of contractual obligations or damages to the extent that they are caused by force majeure, in particular fire, water, storm or other natural events, explosion, strike, war, civil unrest or other reasons outside the sphere of responsibility/influence of the Goethe-Institut.

11. Privacy protection

GI collects, processes and uses the personal data of the course participant both for the purpose of fulfilling the contract signed with the course participant and as permitted by law and under the terms of any signed declaration of consent in compliance with privacy protection laws. For further details see the separate privacy declaration to which we hereby explicitly refer.

12. Applicable law

These terms and conditions and all legal relations between the GI and the course participant are subject to the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.

13. Severance clause

Should sections or individual formulations in these terms and conditions prove invalid or ineffective, this shall have no effect on the remaining sections and their validity. The ineffective provision shall be replaced by the legally admissible provision that most closely approximates the content and economic effect of the ineffective provision.
